REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant has claimed uniquely distinct features in the instant invention which are not found in the prior art, either singularly or in combination. In a first exemplary aspect of the present invention, a method and system) for providing location privacy, includes, for a mobile computing device, assigning a pool of addresses with which a user can access a network, and preventing a third party from correlating a user's location with the mobile computing device.

In a second exemplary aspect of the present invention, a method (and system) for providing a connection to an access point to a network, includes providing a detachable network interface for use in accessing the access point by a computing device without intervention by a user. The detachable network interface breaks a linkage between a media access control (MAC) address associated with the computing device and the user.

In a third exemplary aspect of the present invention, a method fo deploying computing infrastructure, includes integrating computer-readable code in to a computing system, wherein the code in combination with the computing system is capable of performing the above-described methods.

In a fourth exemplary aspect of the present invention, a signal-bearing medium tangibly embodying a program of machine-readable instruction executable by a digital processing apparatus to perform the above-describe methods.

These features are not found or suggested in the prior art.

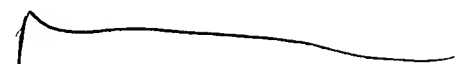

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Thomas R. Peeso whose telephone number is 571 272-3809. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon.-Fri, 7:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The central fax number for the office is 571 273-8300.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Gilberto Barron, can be reached on 571 272-3799.
